1. Malabar House Blend

A blend of the champagne of teas Darjeeling and high grown large leaf Ceylon tea from the Dickwela Estate in Sri Lanka. This perfect wake up blend is light and refreshing and we've chosen it as our Bed Tea, brought to your room first thing.

2. Large leaf Darjeeling

From the Rungee Runliot Tea Farm in the foothills of the Himalayas, the altitude gives this tea a light and delicate taste with golden liquor. Noted for its muscatel flavour, it is known as the champagne of teas.

3. Assam

The Assam Harmutty Estate, located in North East India, was established in 1870 and continues to produce outstanding quality teas including this slightly more aromatic yet full-bodied tippy Assam with a deep golden liquor. Brisk and malty with a strong, bright colour.

4. Ceylon

A high-grown large leaf black tea from Sri Lanka known for its golden colour and rich sometimes malty intense flavour. An ideal drink any time of the day or as an iced tea.

5. Masala Chai

A fine black tea mixed with the spices of the Malabar Coast. A blend of ginger, coriander, cardamom, cinnamon, cloves and black pepper it is full bodied, spicy and one to savour. We feel this version is as close to the real thing as you would find on the streets of Cochin where it is served with hot milk and plenty of sugar.

6. Golden Monkey

A highly prized black tea from the Fujian Province of China, it takes its name from the shape and texture of the dry tea. With a particular aroma and fruity flavour, Golden Monkey is characterised by a lack of astringency and complex undertones of cocoa, honey and peach.

7. Blue Lady

A mild black tea specially blended with petals of mallow and marigold flowers and flavoured with grapefruit. This tea is deliciously light and smooth with a refreshing citrus flavour.

8. Lung Chung Dragonwell

Complex and multi-layered with an irresistible combination of sweet and smooth. A lovely large shiny loose-leaf tea which produces a fine bright liquor with a soft aroma and luxuriously rich taste.

9. Passion Fruit and Orange

Rosehips, hibiscus, dried oranges and other fruit pieces are blended with orange and tropical passion fruit flavours to produce a beautiful ruby red drink that is loaded with great flavour.

10. Winter

A mild China black tea combined with warm cinnamon, pungent cloves and orange peels. Don't be fooled by the name, this is a treat worthy of year-round enjoyment. It has a spicy and fresh aroma, a balanced tangy flavour and slightly sweet smell.

11. Green Peppermint

A high quality gunpowder tea from the Zhejiang Province of China. It has been scented with mint oil to give an intense menthol flavour and stunning taste. A perfect after dinner digestif or equally refreshing when brewed to make iced tea in summer.

12. Pillow Tea

Our own comforting blend of rose petals, camomile and lavender with a hint of Mediterranean sunshine to induce a blissful night's sleep.

All our teas (other than Pillow Tea) are loose leaf, Please ask if you would prefer a stronger or milder brew.

Please let us know if you would like lemon, honey or soy/lactose free milk.
